ROCK AND ROLL NIGHT SCHOOL

(offered on the fourth Wednesday of every month)

Rock and Roll Night School is a monthly series of educational, discussion-based night classes offered on the 4th Wednesday of each month. Jason Hanley, musicologist and Education Department Director at the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum, leads classes, which are geared towards adults interested in gaining more knowledge about rock and roll History. The program explores the history of rock and roll, from its roots to its current incarnations.

Special attention will be given to the music's impact on society, its reception by fans, and its most innovative practitioners. Each class will include a presentation, music and video clips, and group discussions.

The Rock and Roll Night School group package includes admission to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum, a Rock and Roll Night School educational program, a $10 meal voucher for the Rock Hall Café, and a special discount card for The Museum Store, presented by FYE, at the Rock Hall.

Self-Guided Tour:	3½ hours
Rock and Roll Night School educational program:	2 hours (7pm – 9pm)
Rates:	Adults: $26.75
	Seniors: $24.35

All tour directors and bus drivers receive complimentary admission to tour the Museum and enjoy the program.
