PERFORMANCE GROUP GUIDELINES

The following is a list of general guidelines that apply to all performance groups:

- Choirs, bands, ensembles and dance troupes are welcome to perform at the Museum.
- Your tour and performance must take place on the same day.
- A video or cassette tape must be sent to the Group Sales Department for approval two weeks after scheduling your group reservation and performance.
- You must complete an Equipment Assessment form. The form must be returned to the Group Sales Department two weeks prior to your scheduled performance date.
- Groups can unload and load equipment through the front entrance of the Museum a half hour prior to the group's scheduled performance. There is no storage available for any equipment, which must be removed from the Museum immediately after the performance.
- The Museum will provide only the venue, an electrical outlet and the option to rent chairs. Extension cords, and other equipment are not provided.
- Groups of 50 or less can perform on the Main Stage at the Museum. Depending on the type of group, the performance may take place in front of the Main Stage. Groups of 50 or more must perform on Collection Auto Group Plaza at the Museum, and if the weather does not permit, the performance will be canceled.
- Marching Bands must perform outside on Collection Auto Group Plaza at the Museum, and if the weather does not permit, the performance will be canceled.
- The maximum performance time is 40 minutes.
- Performances are scheduled only on weekdays from 10:30am – 2:30pm year-round.
- Throughout the year, there are days when groups cannot perform, which include Memorial Day, the week of Easter, and the week of Christmas. Additional blackout dates are available at your request.
- Due to situations that may be beyond our control, the Museum reserves the right to limit your performance, alter your performance time and location, or cancel your performance.
